Nikii Davis: Simple Kind of Woman

Lake Oswego, OR, November 9, 2005 – After three years of hard work and dedication, Nikii Davis, in conjunction with US producers Peter Boe and Dennis Carter, UK producer, Roman Pryce and Jamaican Producer, Stephen Stewart, is proud to announce the November 17th release of her newest CD, Simple Kind of Woman. For her debut album, Nikii has assembled a stellar cast of musicians, including Grammy winner, Toots Hibbert, legendary drummer, Sly Dunbar, guitarist, Terry Robb, percussionists Brian Davis and Bongo Herman, and acoustic guitarist, Teja Bell.

Nikii is an up and coming artist, whose soulful, personal songs incorporate elements of blues and reggae, as well as ingredients from many other musical styles; and Simple Kind of Woman is a collection that reflects her deepest feelings and desires. This CD can be purchased through the Nikii's web site, www.nikiidavis.com, and at some of the area's finer music stores.

To celebrate, Nikii will perform songs from the CD at a special Preview on November 17, from 7:00 to 10:00, at Sherman & Clay, in the Intimate Acoustic Setting of the Steinway Recital Hall, located at 131 NW 13th Ave. Nikii will be accompanied by Peter Boe on piano.

Big Bill Morganfield, son of Muddy Waters and co-writer of Simple Kind of Woman's "Someone Like U" writes "I am really proud of Nikii's accomplishments." Toots Hibbert of Toots and the Maytals comments, "she reminds me of my friend Bonnie Raitt, Nikii's got a good vibe going on, I love her music, Nikii she vibrates with this energy of love and light"

A native of Lake Oswego, Oregon, Nikii honed her songwriting style over the decades she spent traveling the world, working wide variety of jobs and cataloging an enormous collection of life experiences, many of which find themselves woven into the emotional tapestry of Simple Kind of Woman.

Regarding Simple Kind of Woman, Nikki has this to say: "It is an incredible gift for me to have the honor of working with some of the legends in the music industry today. They provided me with first hand lessons and valuable techniques in performing and songwriting. I owe so much to those who have contributed to my first CD. I feel incredibly blessed and extremely thankful!"
